Whelan Joins Growing Firm

NAPLES, FL – October 10, 2016 – Naples Global Advisors, LLC is pleased to announce that Niki Whelan has joined the portfolio management team of the Naples based independent investment advisory firm. Ms. Whelan will serve as an Investment Analyst for the firm while also pursuing the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation and a Master of Science in Finance from the University of Miami.

“We are extremely fortunate to have attracted Niki to our team. Her understanding of the financial markets along with her passion for learning shows her dedication to the craft of portfolio management,” commented Michael H. Morris, CEO of Naples Global Advisors. “Her commitment to earning the highly prestigious CFA designation reflects our continued dedication to providing the finest investment management services to our clients.”

Niki worked on the Institutional Equities Sales and Trading desk at National Bank Financial (NBF) in Toronto, and after obtaining her undergraduate degree in Finance from Florida Gulf Coast University, she most recently served as an Investment Advisor for high-net-worth clients for PNC Wealth Management.
